This court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter; the restrained person has been or will be afforded notice and a timely opportunity to be heard as provided by the laws of this jurisdiction. This order is valid and entitled to enforcement in each jurisdiction throughout the 50 states of the United States, the District of Columbia, all tribal lands, and all U.S. territories, commonwealths, and possessions and shall be enforced as if it were an order of that jurisdiction.

Warnings and Notices to the Restrained Person in ②Your Address to Receive Court Orders

If the judge makes a restraining order at the hearing (court date), which has the same orders as in this Temporary Restraining Order, you will get a copy of that order by mail at your last known address, which is written in ② on page 1. If your address was not listed on this form or is incorrect, contact the court. If you did not attend your hearing and want to know if the judge granted a restraining order against you, contact the court.

Child Custody, Visitation, and Support

- Child custody and visitation: If you do not attend your hearing (court date), the judge can make custody and visitation orders for your children without hearing from you.
- Child support: The judge can order child support based on the income of both parents. The judge can also have that support taken directly from a parent's paycheck. Child support can be a lot of money, and usually you have to pay until the child is age 18. File and serve form FL-150, Income and Expense Declaration, or form FL-155, Financial Statement \(Simplified\), if you want the judge to have information about your finances. Otherwise, the court may make support orders without hearing from you.
- Spousal support: File and serve form FL-150, Income and Expense Declaration, so the judge will have information about your finances. Otherwise, the court may make support orders without hearing from you.

Firearms (Guns), Firearm Parts, and Ammunition

Under California law, you cannot have any firearms (guns), certain firearm parts, or ammunition. (Family Code sections 6216 and 6389(a)). Ask the court for information on how to properly turn in, sell, or store these items in your city or county. You can also contact your local police department for instructions.

Case Number:

Instructions for Law Enforcement

This order is effective when made. It is enforceable by any law enforcement agency that has received the order, is shown a copy of the order, or has verified its existence on the California Law Enforcement Telecommunications System (CLETS). If the law enforcement agency has not received proof of service on the restrained person, and the restrained person was not present at the court hearing, the agency shall advise the restrained person of the terms of the order and then shall enforce it. Violations of this order are subject to criminal penalties.

Duties of Officer Serving This Order

The officer who serves this order on the Restrained Person must do the following:

- Ask if the Restrained Person is in possession of any of the prohibited items listed in (6), or has custody or control of any that they have not already turned in.
- Order the Restrained Person to immediately surrender to you all prohibited items.
- Issue a receipt to the Restrained Person for all prohibited items that have been surrendered.
- Complete a proof of personal service and file it with the court. You may use form DV-200 for this purpose.

Within one business day of service, submit the proof of service directly into the California Restraining and Protective Order System (CARPOS), including the serving officer's name and law enforcement agency.

Arrest Required if Order Is Violated

If an officer has probable cause to believe that the restrained person had notice of the order and has disobeyed the order, the officer must arrest the restrained person. (Penal Code sections 836(c)(1), 13701(b).) A violation of the order may be a violation of Penal Code section 166 or 273.6.

If the Protected Person Contacts the Restrained Person

Even if the protected person invites or consents to contact with the restrained person, the orders remain in effect and must be enforced. The protected person cannot be arrested for inviting or consenting to contact with the restrained person. The orders can be changed only by another court order. (Penal Code section 13710(b).)

Child Custody and Visitation

Child custody and visitation orders are listed on form DV-140 or another attached form. If the judge made these orders, look at items (10) and (11) of this order to see if the judge granted an exception for brief and peaceful contact with the person in (1) as needed to follow court-ordered visits. Contact by the person in (2) that is not brief and peaceful is a violation of this order. Forms DV-100 and DV-105 are not orders. Do not enforce them.

This is a Court Order.

Case Number:

Conflicting Orders—Priorities for Enforcement

If more than one restraining order has been issued protecting the protected person from the restrained person, the orders must be enforced in the following priority (see Penal Code section 136.2 and Family Code sections 6383(h)(2), 6405(b)):

1. Emergency Protective Order (EPO): If one of the orders is an Emergency Protective Order (form EPO-001), provisions (e.g., stay away order) that are more restrictive than in the other restraining/protective orders must be enforced. Provisions of another order that do not conflict with the EPO must be enforced.
2. No-Contact Order: If a restraining/protective order includes a no-contact order, the no-contact order must be enforced. Item ⑩ is an example of a no-contact order.
3. Criminal Protective Order (CPO): If none of the orders include an EPO or a no-contact order, the most recent CPO must be enforced. (Family Code sections 6383(h)(2) and 6405(b).) Additionally, a CPO issued in a criminal case involving charges of domestic violence, Penal Code sections 261, 261.5, or former 262, or charges requiring sex offender registration must be enforced over any civil court order. (Penal Code section 136.2(e)(2).) All provisions in the civil court order that do not conflict with the CPO must be enforced.
4. Civil Restraining Orders: If there is more than one civil restraining order (e.g., domestic violence, juvenile, elder abuse, civil harassment), then the order that was issued last must be enforced. Provisions that do not conflict with the most recent civil restraining order must be enforced.

TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER
(TRO)
CHECKLIST

(A) Check one.

Filing party is represented by counsel

Filing party is acting in pro se ✓

(B) Has there been actual notice, or a sufficient showing of efforts to provide notice to the affected party? See Local Rule 231 and FRCP 65(b).

Since the harassment began in 2021, I have never once seen Mr. Thompson engage on any matter in good faith. It would be a hazard to my wellbeing to even attempt to facilitate any type of information to Mr. Thompson directly. I am afraid of him and what he may do. Mr. Thompson's communications are always an intentional infliction of emotional distress and hazardous to my mental wellbeing.

Did applicant discuss alternatives to a TRO hearing?

No

Did applicant ask opponent to stipulate to a TRO?

No

Opposing Party:

Telephone No.:

Known online aliases: Omni-Eris, Omni-Eros, Baron Von Elmo, OmniEris, OmniEris News Network, (new aliases seem to be created in an ongoing manner).

(C) Has there been undue delay in bringing a TRO?

Mr. Thompson has, by his own admission, inflicted emotional distress upon me in a predominantly psychological fear based campaign of abusive messaging and psychological manipulation using aliases and "sock accounts". I was unaware of that I was being targeted by Mr. Thompson for the intentional infliction of emotional distress for more than one month after it had been occurring. In response to Mr. Thompson's harassment, I became paranoid and began to display psychotic symptoms including paranoia. I underwent a medical rehabilitation that is ongoing.

Could this have been brought earlier?

A: Yes

(D) What is the irreparable injury?

Mr. Thompson's bad faith, malicious and premeditated attempts to cause me psychological distress caused me to feel unsafe. Mr. Thompson wants to render me unable to speak for myself. I am in constant fear of what he will do if the situation goes on. The damages to my emotional and professional wellbeing are inexcusable and all in clear bad faith on Mr Thompson's part. He clearly states that I "want to see what happens when I piss me off that much." From December 2021 to mid 2022, Mr. Thompson had placed me under a "stipulation" that I never mention his name to anyone. The repression and ongoing fear of his continued harassment is untenable.

Why the need for an expedited hearing?

I am afraid for my emotional wellbeing. Reviewing the attached images from Mr. Thompson's previous communications with me, I believe the court will find the situation I face with Mr. Thompson untenable and until the court has a chance to review the complaint in a legal process, I need to know that Mr. Thompson cannot stalk, harass or communicate with me using any aliases or venues. I am afraid for my safety.
